THE UNEXAMINED RABBIT, WHICH
WITH THE EXAMINED, RECOMMENDED THE GREAT VALUE OF THESE COLLARS, induced others to imitate our boxes so as to enable them to sell their inferior goods. For the MOLDED COLLAR.

The MOLDED COLLAR is designed by two men only—the STANHOP for the turn-down and EDWARD for the stand-up style; they are put up in leather boxes, and manufactured by the American Molding Collar Company, of Hartford, Conn., and are of the same quality and workmanship. Edward has a patented collar molded to fit the cravat in the turn-down and with the space for the cravat in the turn-up.

Collars will also notes STANHOP
EDWARD on each genuine box of Gray's
Collars, and the words "Gray's Patent Molded Collars" and date of patent should be given, unless letters are registered.

Meeting of the Council!—The Market Street Railroad.

Today is the regular meeting of the General Council, and we hope that there will be a full attendance, as business of importance will be before the board, including a number of new ordinances, in which all are interested. The committee to whom was referred the Market-street railroad question, have, we understand, a report prepared, which will be presented to the Council to-morrow for their approval or rejection. The fact that there is no necessity for a road up the street has been so thoroughly discussed to meet every further contention from them, that it would readily destroy the market houses, while the convenience of the public does not require it, is a fact that cannot be denied by any person who will look at the matter without prejudice. The Council should thoroughly consider this matter before they vote away half a million dollars worth of the people's property for the enrichment of the pockets of a few individuals.

Project Proceedings.—Wednesday, October 12th.——Sarah, William, Wm., Weller, Julia Vane, all free negroes, were presented on the charge of drunkenness; Vane was fined $2 and the others discharged.

James Brown insisted too freely of tanglewood, which nearly him too weak to stand; the Judge charged him off for taking up residence on the tanglewood.

Jas. Fitzpatrick, another man in the same fix, was charged $2, as also John Edwards.

H. Marshall was sworn in as an Attorney.

James Nicholson, drunk, &c., fined $10.

Charles Davyson and Fred Harper, carrying concealed weapons; Davyson sent to the military and Harper was discharged.

One ordinance warrant was dispensed of.

Wm. Baker, a free negro, obtained $10 from Daniel Payne, another negro, laid in $900 to answer.

Michael O'Reilly and Nicholas Lundy, flinging on the streets, Lundy fined $1 and O'Reilly $10. After the fine was imposed O'Reilly kept a continual talk, for which he was sent to jail for six hours for contempt of court.

Lizzie Payne, spending bed-clothing; discharged.

A number of peace warrants were dispensed of.

Daniel Mason, shooting.—Johnson: discharged.

The New Albany Fair.—The great horse fair and cattle-butchering on the grounds of the association near New Albany. The premiums offered are very liberal and the number of entries large.

There are fifty-eight first premiums offered, ranging in amount from $5 to $700 each, besides several second premiums, which will be awarded in several cases. The total amount of premium offered exceeds $1,500, all in "greenbacks," to be paid on the ground, as fast as cases are disposed of.

Every arrangement has been made for the convenience of those who attend. The refreshment stands are under the control of Messrs. Forsyth and Connell, of this city.

In the case of Sol. N. Brooks vs. T. E. C. Briley and Geo. T. Briley, reported in the Democrat yesterday, we failed to mention that the case, so far as T. E. C. Briley was concerned, was abandoned at once, in law, for the plaintiff admitting that no case could be made out against him. We cheerfully make this statement in justice to Mr. T. E. C. Briley, who is one of the most correct business men the city.

Even in the suit above mentioned the plaintiff failed to make out a case against Geo. T. Briley, and judgment was rendered for the defendant.

We noticed in the New Albany Ledger of the 11th inst, that in addition to the premiums offered by the managers of the horse fair, Mr. Andrew Peacock, of our city, has purchased an elegant armchair, and offers it as a premium to the best rider over fifty years of age—the riding for this premium to take place on Saturday, and the directors to render the decision. Come, old gents, up and at it. A short ride and an arm chair for the balance of your life.

RELIEFERS.—The following named men, who were tried by a General Court Martial and acquitted, were released yesterday, and forwarded to their commands:—Sergt. George M. Rose, U. S. V. N.; Corporal C. A. Haines, U. S. V. N.; Private P. Burney, 4th U. S. V.; Private H. Trider, 4th U. S.

Choice Apples.

Moore, at his old stand on Fourth just in the receipt of one hundred twenty barrels of choice apples, which will furnish dealers by the barrel.

NIGHT HAUNTS.—There are too many women promenading the streets at night, and insulted. They had better stay at home if they h— will find one for them.

Beargrass cut-off.—A negro soldier with a rock yesterday on the levee, seven negro soldiers with guns chased the boy a square or two, surrounded and captured him. What was done with him we did not learn.

DISCHARGED.—All the detective force, thirteen in number, including the chief, have been discharged by the service by Gen. Watkins, commander of the post. Bad for the detectives. Good for the service.

Mr. AM. BURNETT, of Cincinnati, will commence a series of lectures in Masonic Temple on Monday night. Mr. A. is a funny lecturer, and is very popular here.

CO. OF COMMON PLEAS.—There is nothing to do but to wait. The court meets again at 10 o'clock this morning.

THE ADAM EXPRESS COMPANY.—Messrs. Sprout & Mandeville, owners of Fourth and Main streets, are enlarging their well-known clothing store. When finished it will be the handsomest clothing house in the city.

PEASANTS.—Five or six good plasters can get employment at $4 25 per day calling on P. Benson, Fifth street, for Walnut.

WE ARE PREPARED to do all kinds of work in plain and fancy colors at the

THE SYNOD OF KENTUCKY.

First Day's Proceedings.

The Synod of Kentucky met according to adjournment, on the 11th inst., at 7½ o'clock p. m., in the Chestnut-street Presbyterian Church, in this city. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. R. G. Brank, pastor of the Second Church, Lexington, from the text:

"Another parable spake he unto them, a parable of a man, who is like unto leaven, which was hidden in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened."—[Matt. xiii. 33.]

Some interpreters have thought the reference of the Saviour was the heresies and corruptions that would mingle with, and adulterate the doctrines of the gospel. But this is manifestly erroneous. The circumstances under which the parable was spoken, and the context, forbid it.

Leaven has its good qualities as well as bad. It may put up, disturb and sour, but it also makes light, tasteful, relishing and wholesome. By leaven here then, the preacher understood, was symbolized the diffusion of the gospel and the works of divine grace, whether in the heart of an individual or in the world.

He proposed, however, that at this time to come his remarks chiefly to the empire of grace in the heart and observe.

That is, the leaven in the meal is a foe of incorporation, it is with grace in the heart, but it is not annihilated, it is retained and the kingdom, the Holy Spirit dwelling in it. It is not a philosophy sprung out of the intellect of man, elaborated by reason, but a simple, a natural truth, rooted in the heart, having gone to a wedding, through his coat near the region of the heart, showing that the sheet was well mixed. Mr. Parker, who was on the other side, had returned the fire of the party fired upon Mr. Ruben Davis, on last Sunday night. It is reported that these men are thieves from this city under disguise. For the last week they have been carrying on this species of robbery, so that it is dangerous for any person to go on the road after dark.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.—The following transfers were made in the city and county from the 11th to the 12th of October: D. H. Davis to S. Brownell, 100 by 100 feet on Front street; J. W. Clegg to F. Colley, 21 by 120 feet, on Market between Third and Fourth; G. B. Baker to J. H. Cannon, 20 by 120 feet on Market between Second and Sixth; F. C. Goldwasser to W. E. Givens, 20 by 120 feet between Second and Sixth; J. H. Davis to W. C. Atkinson, 20 by 120 feet on Market street; J. H. Davis to J. H. Davis, 20 by 120 feet on a corner of Sixth and York streets; J. H. Davis to W. C. Atkinson, 20 by 120 feet on the bluffs, near the turn of Portland avenue; J. H. Davis to W. C. Atkinson, 20 by 120 feet on Front street; J. H. Davis to S. Brownell, 100 by 100 feet on Front street.

RENTALS.—The man from Morgan county, Ky., on a visit to Lexington, was knocked down and robbed on Saturday evening last. The rascals who did the work are practicing metropolitan tricks on the unsuspecting gentleman from the rural districts.

DR. M. DICK McCANN.—He recently examined before the civil courts in Knoxville, and the Judge refused to admit him to bail, consequently he is in close confinement still.
